Dedication Message

We dedicate this yearbook to one of our advisors, Mrs. Sarah Cantrell. Only through her determination and co-operation has this yearbook been made possible. We very much appreciate her efforts.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved for their co-operation throughout this endeavor.

Thank you,
Annual Staff '71

FACULTY

Principal's Message

You seniors of '71 deserve a special word of praise. You have come back from the disappointment of being the first Clarksburg Senior class in fifteen years not to go to Washington D.C., to being the first class since 1949 to undertake the tremendous task of sponsoring a yearbook.

This yearbook will serve as a monument to you, and will be a pleasant reminder of a co-operative class effort. You have set a precedent for other classes to follow. Through this endeavor you have learned things that are impossible to teach in a traditional classroom. Because of this, I believe that you will be better citizens, with more compassion for your fellow man, wherever you may be.
